Dog Law Bids Due April 18

Enforcement of the dog control law may be private contract or by a municipal employee.

The new law, approved by town meeting vote, will restrict the activity of canines in town, once a full time dog officer is appointed.

The selectmen have advertised for a private contractor to enforce the new law. Applicants will be eligible to submit bids up to April 18. The contractor would enforce the law, provide the pound and vehicle to pick up the dogs.

A municipal employee would have to be appointed and this remains a possibility. Applicants for this position of full time dog officer, also have until April 18 to apply. Applicants must be 21 years of age.

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen explained this week, that the position is being advertised in the two ways in order to allow the town to examine the most feasible

Town Pays Tribute To Eisenhower

Andover paid a tribute to the late Gen. Eisenhower Monday afternoon.

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen ordered the sounding of the bells at the fire station for the nation's 34th President. The bells were tolled 78 times prior to the beginning of the funeral services for Gen. Eisenhower in Washington, D. C.

Town hall was closed at 3 p.m. Flags on all municipal buildings and at private homes in the town, were flown at half staff.

Fluoride Controversy Continues

Fluoride continues to be a hot issue in the community.

Several local residents are protesting the presence of the chemical injected into the water supply by order of the Board of Health.

Oliver R. Surrence of Chestnut street brought his protest to the selectmen this week and was vociferous in his objection to Fluoridated water.

As reported in the TOWNSMAN last week, Surrence has petitions circulating in the community asking for its removal. This would be done by a vote at the next annual election, provided 1,100 signatures are obtained on the petitions within 90 days of the board's decision which was made last week.

Fluoridation of the water supply began April 1.

EASTER

Special services will mark the conclusion of Holy Week and Easter Sunday in local churches beginning today with traditional Maundy Thursday services by many congregations.

Services in both Catholic and Protestant churches will be held tonight marking the Last Supper, the advent of the Crucifixion of Christ on Good Friday.

Good Friday services will be held Friday, a three hour ecumenical service, to be held at the Free Church from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

There will be special services on Saturday in Catholic and some Protestant churches commemorating Holy Saturday.

Special music will mark most all services, particularly on Easter Sunday, as the Christian World rejoices at the rising of Christ from the dead.

The services, as well as the listing of the special music, are contained in this week's edition of the TOWNSMAN.

Also being marked during the same period is the feast of Passover, by the Jewish congregations, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt, an important holy day for the Jewish religion.

Most stores in the downtown area will be closed on Good Friday during the hours of 12 noon to 3 p.m., according to the Chamber of Commerce.

Bantam Hockey Team Holds Windup Dinner

The Andover Bantam "A" hockey team held its annual break-up dinner last week at the Lanam Club in Shawsheen. The 19 members of the team along with their coaches were the guests of honor at the dinner sponsored by the parents of the team members.

Robert Flannery, representing the parents group, reviewed the highlights of the season and made presentations to the team coaches, Richard E. Neal and Paul E. McNamara. Team captain David Victor and alternate captains Jim Stewart and Jeff Macartney also made presentations to the coaches on behalf of their teammates.

Each boy's accomplishments over the past season which saw the team compile a 16-7-4 record were highlighted by the coaches and each team member was presented with a color photograph of the team along with a descriptive booklet of the events of the team's Canadian Tour which included their four shut-out victories in Ontario.

The team members also presented the three Captains with gifts for their effort and inspiration to the team over the season.

The top award of the evening was the presentation of a scholarship for one week at a hockey school in Toronto, Ontario, next summer. This scholarship was provided to the team with the compliments of the Tam O'Shanter Summer Hockey School in Toronto in recognition of the team's accomplishments in Canada last February. This award was presented to that player who in the opinion of his teammates best exemplified the spirit of the team by meeting the highest standards of personal conduct and competitiveness. The recipient was James Stewart, 7 Stevens Circle.

Cucumbers Top List

Massachusetts greenhouse cucumbers, said by connoisseurs to be the tastiest cucumbers anywhere, is the top headliner on this week's list of "best buys" in native produce released by the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture. The native cukes, very abundant and economically priced, are at their peak. Shoppers can tell them from shipped-in cukes because they are unwaxed, not sticky to the touch, and the tender, edible green skin adds zest to the eating.

An Easter Message

The TOWNSMAN this year, on its front page, has tried to portray the true meaning of Easter.

In a montage, composed by Richard D. Graber, Rev. Paul T. Keyes, assistant at St. Robert Bellarmine Church, West Andover, is shown elevating the host and chalice of wine, symbolic of the body and blood of Christ given at the Last Supper on Holy Thursday and a part of the Mass celebrated daily.

Behind him is the Crucifix, showing Christ's death on the cross on Good Friday.

Surrounding Father Keyes, are the purity of the symbolic Easter lilies and also the dove which represents the Holy Spirit as well as the dove of peace.

We feel the picture to be representative of the true meaning of Easter.

Rabies Clinic

The Andover Board of Health will sponsor a rabies vaccine clinic on Saturday morning, April 5, and also Saturday morning, April 12, at the shop area of the East Junior High school.

New Overdue Book Policy At Memorial Hall Library

Andover's Memorial Hall Library has adopted a radical new policy to attack the age-old problem of overdue books, a policy which few other libraries in the United States have adopted - the honor system!

Library Director A. J. Anderson announced that on April 1, the library stopped collecting fines for overdue books.

Anderson said that fine collection did not act effectively as a deterrent to late-returners; it cost as much money to administer as it took in, and took valuable time from service to the more conscientious patrons.

"The library wants its materials back, because other people may be waiting for them; and fines have not proved to be an effective way of getting them back. It is our hope that people will act more responsibly when they are treated in a responsible, mature manner; in other words, we are putting people on their honor."

"The same rule will obtain with children's books; and with the children the attempt will be made to educate them to an understanding of borrowing privileges and a sense of responsibility for books. At the same time we are cancelling all old fine debts."

Anderson points out that the failure to return public library books is wrongful use of materials provided by public funds, and that strictly speaking, the library could invoke a state law which prescribes a fine of up to $25, or six months of imprisonment, 30 days after notifying late patrons.

The Librarian smilingly assured the TOWNSMAN that the Memorial Hall Library was not interested in invoking this ruling, but that overdue notices would still be sent and persons with frequent or overly long overdue books may have their borrowing privileges curtailed.

"For those who feel that paying a fine will assuage their consciences," Anderson added, "a collection box will be kept at the circulation desk."

It may be news to many Andover readers that library fines have never been a money-maker for the library, just a headache for librarians and delay for other patrons.

Perhaps the library's the new no-fine policy will reform those of us who have rationalized our tardiness with the thought that our fines would eventually provide Memorial Hall with a new 20-volume encyclopedia.

Preschool Eye Screening Planned For Next Week

Preschoolers, four and five years of age will have the opportunity next week of playing a game that may save them from partial blindness by detecting eye defects early, particularly amblyopia. By means of the "E" game played with "magic feet" and a "3-legged table", an eye screening for visual acuity is a happy adventure in growing up healthy.

The "E" game, an integral part of the screening procedure, is used to discover indications of eye faults in children who have not yet learned to read. The 3-legged table is actually the letter "E" that tops the usual eye chart. The "E" appears on the wall chart in diminishing sizes and rotated positions, with the "table legs" pointing in varying directions each time. The child being screened indicates which direction the "legs" are pointing, thus permitting him to be checked even though he cannot read.

For the actual screening the child performs alone; however, to enable the youngsters to learn the game and overcome any shyness, they play it in a group first. When the time for the individual screening arrives, the "magic feet" help to sustain the child's interest as well as aiding the accuracy of the screening. To obtain a precise check of the youngster's visual acuity, the chart must be read from a distance of 20 feet, at which spot he stands on red footprints to indicate with his hands in which direction the legs on the "E" are pointing.

"Last year nearly 300 youngsters were checked and we are anticipating over 400 this year because of parents' new awareness of catching eye problems early. We hope every preschool child in Andover will be brought in by his parents," Mrs. Francis J. Hill Jr., chairman of the project, said today.

If a youngster's performance gives evidence to the volunteer screener of a possible vision difficulty, the child is "referred". This means his parents are notified in writing of the need for the child to have a complete professional eye examination. Each referral is subsequently followed-up to see if the youngster has had the necessary examination.

Sponsored by the Andover Board of Health under the direction of Mrs. Hill, assisted by Mrs. John Atchison, Mrs. John R. Niceforo, and Mrs. Bruce Taylor, 30 Andover Society volunteers, trained by the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Blindness have already begun screening nursery school groups in Andover. The town-wide program is being offered at no charge the afternoon of Tuesday, April 8 from 1-5 p.m. and the following morning, Wednesday April 9 from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church on Central Street.

An "Emergency Meeting" of the North Andover - Andover Parents League has been called by the president, Mrs. Lyman G. Bul-lard, Wednesday, April 9, 9:30 a.m. at the Underwood Room, Phillips Academy.

It is earnestly hoped that all members will attend. Constructive criticism of past activities and suggestions for future activities will be the main topics for discussion. The Parents League is a voluntary association for persons interested in a group promoting higher standards of education and social behavior; giving information on cultural and recreational opportunities; coordinating relationships between parents, their children, the school and the community.

AVIS To Show Film Wednesday

The Andover Village Improvement Society will show both "Nature's Half-Acre" and "The Grand Canyon" in the second of its spring film series on Wednesday, April 10.

The two free color movies will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the West Junior High Auditorium, and last for one hour. Adults, and children over the age of seven, are welcomed.

"Nature's Half-Acre" is a Walt Disney nature film widely acclaimed for its color movie photography of unsuspecting wild life and plants to be found in nearby fields and our own back yards. The film includes movies of wild-flowers opening up, through use of time-lapse photography.

The second film was released by the Sierra Club, a western conservation group which has become a byword for its efforts to save the West's redwood forests and other scenic natural resources as well as wildlife, from commercial destruction and spoilation.

"The Grand Canyon" pictures recreation along the Colorado River with footage of the scenic beauty of the Grand Canyon itself. The editorial purpose of the film was to show why America should preserve the Canyon for the public, for its natural beauty and for the recreational opportunities it presents, instead of yielding to power companies' pressure to flood the canyon with a dam, for hydroelectric power.

AVIS is a private conservation group which acquires and maintains green acreage in Andover for conservation and recreation purposes. AVIS reservations are open to public enjoyment and the group eagerly welcomes new members to help accomplish its purposes. Information on membership, and also on public use of AVIS lands will be available at the free public movies Wednesday night.

The final plans for the dance were made at a recent Newcomer's board meeting held at the home of Mrs. David Simpson, 12 Gray Road.

Reservations are available from Mrs. Leland Potter, Jr., 35 Enmore St., until Friday, April 11.

Andover Team Wins Title

Andover Institute of Business, 90 Main St., clinched the AIB basketball league championship 81-78 over the AIB - Worcester club in a play-off game Wednesday.

This year's see-saw battle was a repeat of last year's game. Last year AIB - Andover triumphed over the same AIB - Worcester club in a similar play-off.

The game saw Worcester hold an early three point lead until midway through the third period when Andover tied the game. It wasn't until the final five minutes that Andover's Bill Parker from Westford put AIB ahead to stay. The last five minutes found both clubs matching baskets.

High scorer for Andover was Bob O'Brien from Billerica. Behind him in double figures were Peter Yates with 21, Bill Parker with 10, and Bob Silk with 10. High man for Worcester was Bukowski who had 25.

The following night Don Nelson of the Celtics was the head table speaker at the AIB Father Son dinner at Camelot in North Andover. He jokingly noted the incentive for successfully defending the NBA championship as "We need the win to bolster our contract talks for next year. He also predicted victory for a Celtics team if everyone is healthy.

Poverty is not confined to city slums. The Manpower Report of the President, prepared by the U.S. Department of Labor, points out that over 11 million rural Americans--three out of every eight--were living in poverty in 1966, as compared with only one out of eight residents of metropolitan areas.

School Board Considers Contracts

The school committee agreed to sign the contract with custodians Tuesday night.

School committee negotiator Mrs. Virginia Cole and representatives of the custodians who were present said that only a few changes had been necessary in the contract, including shortening the 21-day posting of vacancies to 14 days; both sides considered this to be a sufficient period of time.

The contract between the school board and the Andover Education Association, representing teachers, administrators and health personnel, cannot be officially ratified until it returns from Town Counsel Frederic S. O'Brien with his approval. A few changes and refinements in wording were effected Tuesday night, with the approval of AEA president Charles Donovan, a fixture in the visitors' seat at school committee meetings.

The committee heard a letter from high school hockey coach Charles Vars, thanking them for cooperating with the team's trip to Russia. Vars said that despite frustrating moments the trip had accomplished all its major objectives. He felt that the boys had both given and gained greater understanding through their trip.

Another letter was received from the headmaster of Austin

Preparatory School notifying Andover school authorities of the probable necessity for absorbing the more than two dozen Andover boys now at the school.

Austin Prep is facing probably extinction in June, although there is some possibility of continuing under a lay board.

A letter from Fire Chief Henry Hilton said that a fire drill at the new Bancroft School showed that improvement was necessary in the means of shutting the kitchen off from the rest of the school in case of fire. The present protective doors are difficult to operate quickly, and two men are required to effect the necessary closing off at the kitchen area.

Mrs. Norman Viehman wrote saying she was confused on learning that funds could be collected for the Junior Red Cross in elementary schools, but high school students had to get special permission to collect funds for food for Biafra.

Superintendent Erickson was instructed to reply that the matter was under consideration and school committee a policy statement would be coming.

The school department is in need of more cafeteria workers. Women interested in part-time work during school hours may contact Mrs. Florence McGrath, cafeteria Director, at her school office, 475-0481.

The school committee approved the appointment of Mrs. Norma Weber, appointed for the remainder of this year, for another year as French teacher at West Junior High. Her salary will be $9600. Also appointed to the West Junior High faculty for next year is Mrs. Antoinette Beauchesne, at $8300, as science teacher. Mrs. Beauchesne is an experienced junior high level teacher.

Mrs. Barbara Fine of Woburn was approved as librarian at the West Elementary School. She has been a teacher for four years, and was librarian for two years in Woburn. She expects to be certified by summer.

Carmen A. Innucilli of Methuen has been hired on a one-season contract as assistant track coach at the high school this spring.

The board granted a leave of absence to Mrs. O'Hagen, first grade-Sanborn teacher, for care of her mother who is ill.

Resignations effective at the end of the year, were accepted from Frances Honkenen, West School grade 5 teacher, for personal reasons, Susan Schulman, Stowe School, grade 6, because of commuting difficulties, Sandra Cohen, Bancroft grade 5 teacher, to pursue graduate degree, and Alice O'Toole, South School grade 3 teacher for 14 years. The resignations were accepted with regret.

John H. Bullis

Promoted To Vice President Of Corporation

Louis R. Perini, chairman of the board, DASA Corp. has announced the election by the board of directors of John H. Bullis as a vice president of the corporation. Mr. Bullis will continue to serve in his present capacity as director of administration.

Prior to joining DASA, Mr. Bullis was personnel manager at the corporate headquarters of the J. C. Penney Company in New York City. Earlier he held personnel positions with the Rike-Kumler Co. and the National Cash Register Co. in Ohio. He is a graduate of Otterbein College in Westerville, Ohio, with additional studies at Western Reserve University and the U.S.A.F. Personnel Institute.

DASA Corporation, with headquarters in Andover, produces business information products for telephone communications, data communications, and graphic products and supplies.

Mr. Bullis, his wife Carol and their three sons make their home in Andover.

Academy Teams Prepare For Spring Events

The Phillips Academy athletic teams get down to business this week in preparation for the spring sports schedule. The lacrosse and tennis squads will be trying to maintain their lofty ranks in the New England prep school ratings, and the baseball, track, and golf teams all boast promising newcomers who assure good seasons. The rowing crew starts from scratch after losing last year's regular performers through graduation.

Andover residents always play an important role in P. A. athletics. This past winter Dave Sagaser, 56 Chestnut St., was the varsity hockey goalie and helped Phillips achieve a 15-4-1 record, best among New England prep schools. Pete Sorota, son of Coach Steve, led varsity track in total points with 89 for the year. Chuck Willand, 92 Elm St., dived for the varsity swim team and just missed a valuable score in the Interscholastic tournament.

For this season Chuck Willand, John Korba, and Joe Leonardi are varsity baseball hopefuls. Al Landry, Per Bro, and Pete Olney will perform for the varsity lacrosse team. Pete Sorota is prepared to lead the royal blue's track team.

Catching men isn't the easiest thing in the world. (If it were, there wouldn't be any eligible men around anymore.) But it does help if you know some of the basic rules of survival. And what is the basic rule of survival? Adaptation! You've got to learn to adapt yourself and your personal beauty to all sorts of situations. And, you have to learn to adapt yourself to all sorts of men. Just as different fish are attracted by different lures, you have to tackle different types of men with the proper equipment! Do you have it?

In A Word ...

SURVIVAL

We have all heard of the expression, "survival of the fittest." When we think of this phrase, it is usually in terms of the survival of animal species. But there is another test of survival which involves the long process of developing pharmaceutical products.

For every finally-approved product that is sold, literally hundreds, or thousands, of other ideas and products are created, researched, tested—and discarded. If they cannot survive the increasingly exacting standards the manufacturer imposes they are heard of no more.

So you can be assured that the medication your pharmacist dispenses has passed one survival test after another, and that it is most qualified to answer a specific therapeutic need. Truly only the fittest of drugs survive.

Conservation Bills Before Congress

There are a number of important conservation measures up for consideration during this session of Congress.

Among the most outstanding is a bill which would expand and extend the Youth Conservation Corps, changing its focus from an "underprivileged only" concept to include the average teenager.

This legislation would give summer jobs to young people from 14 to 18 years old, so they could earn, learn, and contribute meaningful conservation work in national forests and parks and other public lands. Youngsters could do such work as forest reseeding and improvement, water and erosion control, and building and maintaining campgrounds, bridges, and trails.

Senator Henry M. Jackson (Wash.), who introduced the "Youth Conservation Corps Act of 1969," said, "Many of our Nation's youth—not just the underprivileged and school dropouts, but also the average teenager—often never have an adequate opportunity to be engaged in meaningful employment during the summer months. Because of the employment problems these young men and women face, especially in our urban areas, they are tempted to roam the streets in pursuit of less desirable goals.

Also before Congress is a proposal to establish a Council of Advisors on Environmental Quality in the Office of the President.

Another interesting proposal is a possible constitutional amendment declaring that "the right of the people to clean air, pure water, freedom from excessive and unnecessary noise, and the natural, scenic, historic, and esthetic qualities of their environment shall not be abridged."

Some of last year's unfinished conservation business will soon be considered again.

The Endangered Animal Act, which was killed in last year's rush to adjourn, has been reintroduced. This measure, vital to protecting species in danger of extinction, such as the polar bear, leopard, and alligator, would stop importation and illegal interstate commerce in protected animals' skins and products.

Also back again is the Water Quality Improvement Act, a proposal for financing Federal waste treatment grants to communities and controlling vessel and oil pollution, etc. Conservationists are hopeful that the bill will pass this time, particularly since it attempts to help solve one of the biggest headaches of conservation action—the tendency of Congress to pass excellent anti-pollution laws, but then finance them inadequately once budget time rolls around.

There appears to be a flurry of action on the conservation law front ...however, whether the action will hold up when the congressmen get down to the nitty-gritty is another question. Last year laws authorized an expenditure of $836 million for water pollution control, but only $302.8 million was actually appropriated...a large gap between verbiage and dollars.

In the meantime, the United States Government's annual budget for Chemical and Biological Warfare development and testing is $350 million.

Maybe we need to re-examine some of our priorities. What is really important in a world already on the verge of committing ecological suicide?

Tennis Program To Be Held

Both instruction and informal play classes will be offered. For the informal play individuals or groups may enroll. Early registrants will have first choice of available periods.

Schedule - Women's morning instruction classes on Tuesday or Wednesday 9 or 10:15 a.m.; Women's morning informal play on Thursday or Friday 9 or 10:15 a.m.; Adult evening instruction Tuesday or Thursday approximately 6 p.m. until dark; Adult informal play Monday, Wednesday or Friday approximately 6 p.m. until dark; West Andover women's instruction or informal play Thursday 9 or 10:15 a.m.; Youth instruction Monday, Tuesday or Thursday at 3:30 or 4:30 p.m.; Youth informal play Wednesday at 4:30 or Friday at 3:30 or 4:30 p.m. (Youth program for ages 10 and over).

Instructors and supervisors will include Mrs. Dorothy Gulezian, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Nancy Anderson, Georgia Anderson, Mrs. Gloria Gottesfeld, Elden Salter, Mrs. Robin Jaccacci, B. Greenbaum, Donald Sagaser, Mrs. Virginia Clark, Mrs. Jane Hinman and Mrs. Eleanor Washburn.

Nearly 45 million workers throughout the nation are now covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act -- the Federal minimum wage and overtime law.

Local Teacher Wins Scholarship

East Junior High science teacher, Richard Stevens, is the recipient of a National Science Foundation fellowship for summer study at the University of California in Berkeley. He will concentrate in the field of Physics.

Mr. Stevens with his wife and daughter Lori will leave for the west coast soon after school closes. Mr. Stevens teaches five classes of seventh graders at East Junior High for whom interest in science runs high because of his many novel exhibits and experiments.

Pike School Plans Summer Program

Again this summer at the Pike school 40 young children, ages four through eight, will have the run of the fields, woods and water holes while collecting bits and pieces of nature, noticing things and hearing things that they might never have experienced without the guidance of a staff trained to stimulate a unique awareness in the senses of Young Explorers.

This will be the fifth year in the life of the program. At least ten of the group will be youngsters from disadvantaged situations. These boys and girls will learn and play with other children from a variety of Greater Lawrence backgrounds; and the opportunities for the mingling of cultures provides social experiences broadening for the entire group.

Mrs. Richard Hornidge continues to serve as director. She will be assisted by Mrs. A. K. Porter and Mrs. Eugene C. Graves. In addition to experimenting in a natural laboratory, the Explorers will participate in creative music and art programs intimately related to the nature study.

Mrs. Hornidge has been associated with the school for many years as a teacher throughout the grade range. The Young Explorers summer offering, first introduced in 1964, is largely the product of her planning. Mrs. Porter assisted in art during the 1967 season and Mrs. Graves joins the staff this year to serve the musical needs. Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Graves are well known in their respective fields for the classes they have conducted privately for young children in their homes. All subscribe to the school's general purpose "that each child through creative art, music and heightened powers of observation will be helped to express his individual inner feelings and ideas...."

South Church To Observe Office Of Tenebrae

The office of tenebrae will be observed at the South Church this evening at 8 p.m.

This is an adaptation of an early Fourth Century Office which is ushered in by a solemn observance of the Holy Communion.

The Communion table in the chancel is arranged in the form of a cross. The church is dimly lighted. The gradual extinguishing of the lights is symbolic of the flight of the disciples, and the passion of our Lord.

The moment of total darkness recalls the days our Lord was in the tomb and the relighting of the single central candle is prophecy of the Easter so soon to dawn.
The rule of silence is rigidly observed. The hymn stanzas interpret the devotional significance of the Passion, from the hour of fellowship in the upper room to the hour of loneliness in the garden.

The observance of the Holy Communion on the evening of Maundy Thursday is one of the most ancient of church customs. It was on that night, in what we now call Holy Week, that twelve disciples were with Jesus in the upper room for the last time, and that He and they stood in the shadow of the cross.

The word "Maundy" is derived from the Latin mandatum, or "commandment" and has reference to the commandment in the upper chamber when Jesus gave the "new commandment": "Love one another as I have loved you."

As a part of the evening service there will be reception of new members.

Good Friday Service Set

An ecumenical Good Friday service will be held Friday, April 4, from 12 noon until 3 p.m. at the Free Church. The Free Church
Choir will participate and Mrs.
Michael Brennan will sing a solo.
The Lord's Prayer. The service is open to all. Worshipers may enter and leave at stated intervals in the service.

The following clergymen will be preaching the "Seven Words from the Cross": Rev. Earl B. Robinson, Andover Baptist church; Rev.
Kenneth J. Kennedy, O.S.A., St.
Augustine's church; Rev. Norman
E. Dubie, Sr., West Parish church;
Rev. Hartland H. Gifford, Faith
Lutheran church; Rev. J. Edison
Pike, Christ church; Rev. J.
Everett Bodge, South church; Rev.
J. Allyn Bradford, Free church.

Movie Benefits Wanderers Home

A special benefit performance of "The Lion in Winter" on April 10 at Cinema I, on Route 114 in Lawrence, will benefit the New England Home for Little Wanderers.

The Greater Lawrence Chapter of the Home, which is arranging the benefit performance and seeking local support, has some questions for the public:

"Did you know that the Greater Lawrence Chapter of the New England Home for Little Wanderers, besides supporting the Home itself, supports a girl at the University of Massachusetts, has supported her through the Home since 10th grade? Her name is Edna.

"Did you also know that the Home has an After-Care Shelter, a place for 18 year-olds and older to live, after they have jobs, but still need a place to live and guidance? These are only a few of the beneficial things that this Chapter supports.

"Wouldn't you like to help us and enjoy a movie at the same time?" "A Lion In Winter," will be shown April 10 for our benefit."

Mrs. Robert Stewart is chairman of the event, and Mrs. Arthur Wooten in charge of contacting the other chapters.

Mrs. John D. Phillips and Mrs. Laurence Farrington are doing posters, and Mrs. Philip Vigeant is handling tickets.

Tickets can be bought at Thompson's, in Andover, at the Hay Scales in North Andover, and from any member of the Greater Lawrence Chapter of the Home for Little Wanderers.

Church Hoop League Concludes

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN, APRIL 3, 1969

The Church Basketball League concluded its 22nd season of action Monday night with a pair of All-Star games and the annual shooting contest at the East Junior High gym.

In the opener of the twin All-Star contests, the St. Augustine 'D' Junior Division champions romped to a one-sided 27-5 victory over the Junior All-Stars. The win kept the 'D' squad's perfect record intact at 9-0.

St. Augustine 'D' once again received a fine all-around effort from 10-year-old sparkplug Glenn Verrette, captain of the team and Division scoring champion with 84 regular season points. Verette poured in 11 points to lead the way against the "Stars."

Jeff Winters also fired the winners' attack with 8 points, while Jim Cox had 5 points, Brian LaPointe and Russ Tassinari flipped in 2 points apiece.

Steve Hillmann and Danny LaPointe paced the tough man-to-man defense put up by the 'D' team. Missing from the champions' attack was the eagle-eye shooting of Timmy Meyers, who was out nursing an infected ear.

For the All-Stars, Big Billy Alexander of West Parish 'A' and Johnny Kilgo of South Church each popped in 2 points while John DeBitetto of West Parish 'B' registered one free throw.

Others who played well in a losing cause for the Stars were Eddie Caselden of St. Augustine 'B', Mark Hamilton of Free Church, Brian White of Baptist, Roy Hoffman of St. Augustine 'A', Timmy Francis of Christ Church, Kurt Reming of St. Augustine 'C', Bob Joynson of Unitarian-Universalist and Jimmy Weitz of St. Robert's.

The powerful 'D' club, which held a 234-18 scoring edge on its opponents this year, raced out to an 8-0 first period spread, increased the lead to 19-2 at the half, was ahead by a 23-4 margin after three quarters and then won by the 27-5 count.

St. Augustine 'D' was coached by Mickey Walker, Maury LaPointe and Assistant Coach and chief strategy man Dave Walker. The All-Star squad was coached by Rick Harrison.

In the second All-Star tilt the creaky League Coaches managed to ride the hot hands of John Royal to a 32-17 victory over the Intermediate All-Stars. The Coaches now lead this short series, 2-0.

Royal tossed in 14 points to pace the winners while Bob French hooped 7 points, Jim Caselden 5 points, Les Harris and Frank Monette 2 points apiece and George Connors 1 point. Connors also swept the defensive boards clean and led a number of fast breaks for the Coaches. Harry Schmitke chipped in with a host of key defensive steals for the winners.

The Intermediate Stars put up a solid, well-balanced scoring attack led by Erick Jenson's 5 points. Karl Harig, Jenson's teammate on West Parish 'B', canned 4 points while Keith Verrette and Gary Meyers of St. Augustine has 2 points apiece, Richie Robertson of South had 2 points and Roddy Perron of Christ Church dunked 2 points.

Other sparklers for the Intermediate Stars included Steve Cornwell of South Church, Dave Perron of Christ Church and Steve Alexander of West Parish 'A.'

The Coaches led 4-2 after the first quarter, 8-3 at the half, and 19-9 after three sessions before ending with a 32-17 win.

Bob VonDerZee handled the coaching reins for the Intermediate Stars, while the Coaches club was mismanaged by eight player-coaches.

Two excellent performances were turned in by the winners of the shooting contest which involves 10 shots - five from around the "key" area and five from the foul line.

In the Junior Division, Jeff Winters of St. Augustine 'D' topped the 85 boys who participated from the 12 Junior clubs Winters connected on 8 shots for 80 per cent. His closest competitors were a distant second as John Kilgo, Brian White, Mark Hewett, Dave Hajj and Danny LaPointe all have five-out-of-10.

In the Intermediate Division, Bill Cunliffe of Christ Church captured the contest with 8-out-of-10 for 80 per cent also. His closest rivals among the 26 boys who competed were Keith Verrette of St. Augustine and Roddy Perron of Christ Church with six shots apiece.

Both winners will receive a new pair of basketball shoes for their efforts at next week's wrapup banquet, while all boys who participated will receive a prize at the banquet.

The league's executive board wishes to congratulate all the boys who participated in the league with their attendance, and to cite the following coaches, referees and other personnel who gave of their time this season:

Tom Emmons and Dave Coffman (South Church), Alan Lounsbury and Mal Estell (Baptist), John Royal, Jim Caselden, Henry Doherty, John Sheehy, Mickey Wal-Doherty, John Sheehy, Mickey Walker and Maury LaPointe (St. Augustine), Harry Schmitke (Unitarian-Universalist), Bob VanDerZee (Free Church), Les Bartow, Bill Anderson, Robert Wilton, Paul Whitley and Paul Moonjian (Christ Church), John Bohl (St. Robert's), and Les Harris, Frank Monette and Rick Harrison (West Parish).

Editorial Comment

Easter, 1969

"He has risen as He said, Alleluia."

With those words the Christian world rejoices on Easter Sunday.

It is with those words that the worshippers on Easter Sunday give thanks to the risen Christ, crucified for the sins of mankind three days before.

In this year of 1969, we wonder what the Divine Saviour feels as He looks down on a world and mankind whom He gave his life to redeem.

What must He think of the sacrifice He made when He views differences between nations, blood being spilled in Vietnam, Communist rejection of a Supreme Being.

Could the memory of the road to Calvary be on His mind when He sees a nation such as ours divided by racial problems and assassinations?

Does an affluent nation such as ours grieve Him, when He sees campus unrest and rioting in the streets?

Would such things as today's drug abuse among the youth of the nation, along with other abuses, both mentally and physically disturb Him?

We think such things should be on the minds of those who will worship Him this Sunday — for some an annual or semi-annual visit.

We subscribe to the theory that the missile can be replaced by a missal.

That a return to Him can bring about a better world in which to live.

We would pray to Him who gave us redemption, to now give us guidance to build a better and more understanding world in a time of great need.

That He rose to save us, so now should we rise on this Easter, 1969, to ask his assistance and blessing on a future course.

Valiant Man

A man who has devoted his life to his country, has met his eternal reward.

Gen. Dwight David Eisenhower, who led American troops and allied nations to victory in World War II and led a nation for eight years as president, has passed from the American scene.

Seldom do men contribute so much to their country as did Gen. Eisenhower.

From a simple Kansas home, he went on to the greatest Army military institution in the world, West Point.

From there he rose in the ranks of the U. S. Army to become a five star general, one of the few this nation has honored with such high rank.

During World War II, he became supreme allied commander in Europe, leading this country and its allies to a decisive victory over Germany.

Most outstanding was his direction of the D-Day invasion at Normandy which spelled the beginning of the downfall of the Nazis and led to complete victory.

Following his service to the government as a military man, "Ike" gave his service to civic and educational projects, serving for a time as president of Columbia University.

His country called upon him once again in 1952, this time to serve as President — one of the most arduous and trying positions in the world today.

He served his country for eight years at the nation's top administrative post, during which he suffered his initial heart seizure.

Strong in mind, wisdom and heart, he was allowed to retire to his Gettysburg home for several years before that heart which he gave to his nation could no longer endure.

His last full scale public appearance was at the Republican National convention in Miami. His address was filmed in advance. He also appeared briefly on national television on his birthday at a tribute to him from his hospital bedroom.

Suffering a series of heart attacks and other irregularities, "Ike" kept battling to the end which came last Friday.

We were fortunate as a nation for his presence and for his devotion to national service.

We are assured, he shall not be forgotten.

Library Quizzes

A patron recently asked, "How long are the public school terms in other states in the United States?"

The latest figures we could find are in the "Statistical Abstract of the United States 1968," which give the average lengths of school terms for the 50 states for the year 1966. The average length of school term for all states is 178.8 days which is quite an increase over the average length of school term of 144.3 days in 1900.

Off The Top
Of The Desk

The Massachusetts Turnpike was rated as one of the safest highways in the Northeast in 1968.

Over 1 billion, 28 million miles were travelled in 1968 on the 135 mile length of the Massachusetts Turnpike. The fatality rate was 1.8 persons for every 100 million miles of travel.

The New Jersey Turnpike with 1.7 edged out the Massachusetts Turnpike for first place in safety.

John T. Driscoll, chairman of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, announced that figures released by the International Bridge, Tunnel and Turnpike Association in Washington, shows that the Massachusetts Turnpike had the second best safety record of all toll roads in the Northeast.

For sports buffs, there are difficult days ahead. Within the next few weeks, fans will be torn between the hockey playoffs, the basketball playoffs and the opening of the baseball season.

For Boston professional sports followers, this means keeping an eye on the Bruins as they challenge for the Stanley Cup and the Celtics, seeking to retain their National Basketball Association title. It also will mean they will be giving attention to the Red Sox as they open their season seeking another pennant.

Sand and salt spread on the streets during the winter months become quite obvious at this time of year as the street sweeper makes its rounds.

It is amazing the mounds of residue picked up by the sweeper as it makes its rounds. Huge mounds are piled up in small areas of the community, indicating the amount of material needed to keep the streets safe for travel.

Philharmonic Schedules Final Concert

The Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Orchestra will present its last formal concert of the season Sunday, April 12 at 3:30 p.m. Domenic Teoli, assistant conductor and concert master, and Robert Vaughan, business manager have been engaged in its preparation.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

The following is a copy of my letter of March 25 to the Andover Board of Health. I shall be grateful to you for its publication.

Board of Health
Town Hall
Andover, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I am writing for clarification of one paragraph of the article-ANDOVER TO FLUORIDATE ITS WATER—which appeared in the March 25 issue of the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, namely:

"According to the board, well water on Andover Street in Ballardvale will be available for those who do not go along with the added fluoride in their drinking water."

Do you plan to deliver well water to those who are opposed to fluoridation?

Have you provided for this service in your budget?

If the answers are no, my next questions are:

How do you propose that citizens with no means of transportation get to the well?

How do you expect people who are disabled in any respect to get the water? Water is certainly not the lightest thing in the world.

In blizzards such as we have experienced this winter, just how do you think the ablest of persons could face up to this?

If this situation was something of a few days duration, most people could probably somehow manage, difficult as it would be. Unfortunately this is a situation which all indications point to going on forever, therefore, my questions are serious ones and we, the people, are entitled to more courteous thought in the matter than was indicated in the item referred to.

Marion E. Hill
4 Marion Avenue

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN

The TOWNSMAN reports that Andover's Board of Health says that it is impressed by the opinions of several noted medical authorities that are in favour of using a public vehicle, a water supply, to impose medication mostly useful for a personal purpose.

However, it is the obligation of any Board of Health to be more impressed with its duty not to allow any public facility to be used to impose mass medication unnecessary to the General Welfare. The moreso when the means employed, political power as determined by a legislature, creates a situation contrary to the personal purpose of one or more of the citizens composing a part of the political power so used.

Shortly put, a characteristic of a free country is that in at least some instances, the opinion of but one citizen must be deferred to by the political power of all others combined, but one!

No School Good Friday

There will be no public school on the morning of Good Friday, as originally announced. Instead the school department has decided that the school year will last two days longer in June, through Tuesday, June 24, in order to make up some of the days lost to snow.

The new calendar change which Superintendent Edward I. Erickson recommended Tuesday night was approved by the school committee, which had instructed Erickson to come up with a plan to meet their recently voted policy on the length of the school year. Only Committeeman William A. Doherty opposed approval.

Committeeman William F. King applauded Erickson's solution to fully meet the state's requirements and reminded the meeting that "180 days is not a normal school year, but the minimum school year."

King said that school years were getting longer, not shorter, and he was all for it, pointing out that kids no longer need to get out early to work on the farm.

"Next year," said King, "we hope to rearrange the school calendar so we will be assured of getting more than 180 days of school, no matter what the weather is."

In a special meeting ten days ago, the committee had voted 3-2, Committee members William A. Doherty and Chairman Dr. Richard A. Katz opposing, to make up the storm days which all the schools lost, beyond the "snow allowance" days built already into the calendar. The only exception, for which a waiver has been requested, will be the day of school lost by afternoon kindergartens and Bancroft, which was then still on afternoon sessions.

Andover Education President Charles Donovan pointed out that although teachers were bound by contract beyond the last day of school, a few teachers had already accepted positions in summer institutes, which begin Monday, June 23. The school committee felt that exceptions could be entertained to cover these situations.

Troop 75 Plans For Campout

The first outdoor overnight activity of Boy Scout Troop 75 of Andover's St. Augustine's church is being planned for the weekend of April 11 - 13 at the Knights of Columbus area on Osgood Street, West Andover.

As a special project work parties will be formed to clear brush and provide maintenance for the grounds of the K of C facility in appreciation for the cooperation given to the Scout Troop by the K of C membership each year. Members of the troop committee include George F. Lannan Jr., 47 High St., chairman; Gerald M. Fannon, 26 Argilla Road, secretary; Richard H. Mower, 140 Elm St., treasurer; Edward J. Board Votes Expansion Of Central

The School Committee voted Tuesday night, without opposition, to go ahead with plans to expand and update the Central Elementary School building.

The committee will meet the state's School Building Assistance Commissioner William Black on Wednesday, April 9, in a luncheon conference to establish the town's need for more elementary school space. This is the first step in applying for state assistance.

Black will go over Central, South and Sanborn Schools, but the School Committee has decided that expansion and updating of Central has first priority.

Committeeman William F. King said that he had gotten one message loud and clear at the Parents' Walkthrough of Bancroft School last week: "Get moving on those other elementary school buildings so they can have the same program!"

Chairman Dr. Richard A. Katz said that his impression was that visitors to the newly opened Bancroft School, were 99% enthusiasts, with just a few die-hards who sniffed at the school's structure.

At the next school committee meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, April 16, the committee has asked Assistant Superintendent Vaughn I. Clapp to discuss with them his plans for expanding the continuous progress (non-graded) program, instruction begun at South and Bancroft Schools, for use in the other elementary schools.

The schoolmen also heard a cheery progress report on the hunt for a new superintendent of schools: 79 candidates have applied to fill the shoes of retiring Superintendent Edward I. Erickson, who leaves the post this summer. The board hopes the man they select can begin in July.

Dr. Herold Hunt, Eliot Professor of Education at Harvard University, helped the school committee prepare a brochure advertising the vacancy and afforded his educational contacts for its circulation. In his capacity as consultant to the school committee on hiring a new superintendent, Dr. Hunt will screen the nearly eighty candidates and narrow the list to five to ten he judges as qualified to fill the school committee's needs.

School committee interviews of prospective superintendents will begin later this month.

A Report From New Zealand

Miss Denise Drazy

The Andover High School IMPRINT keeps students informed about the doings of American Field Service student Denise Drazy, who left in January for a year in New Zealand. The following article, entitled "Singlets And Pigtales" is the March 21 IMPRINT.

Near the end of January, a very excited senior, Denise Drazy, left Andover to take up residence on the far-off isle of New Zealand as a member of the American Field Service program. Her enthusiasm for her new home and family is mirrored in the following excerpts from a letter recently received from Denise:

"... School is going fine. I'm still 'way ahead in math. Today we saw a film in physics about velocity - distance - acceleration graphs, the same one we had at home! My English teacher gets a charge out of hearing me talk - especially when I was reading from Huckleberry Finn - and it's such a 'quaint' way that he can't bear to correct my pronunciation.

We had school swimming sports last Wednesday. The whole school was in it - really great! The school is divided into four 'houses', Ayson, Malcolm, Ross and Reid. I'm an Ayson. We lost the sports by one point. I was in the freestyle (came second) and backstroke (won and broke record). We got an afternoon off from school for it.

This week was athletic sports and track meet, and again the whole school participates. It's all very serious and exciting. The sports were on two afternoons. The first day I was in the long jump - came second - and the 220 yards - first. The next day I was in the 100 yards (came first) and the 75 yards (came first) and the high jump (came first and broke record.) And - you'll never believe it - I won Senior girl champion, quite an honor actually.

Last weekend Lois, Ross (her AFS sister and brother) and I went to Bible Class Camp in Tuapeka Mouth, up in the hills by the Clutha River. It was quite sleepless, but fun. We even had a real old-fashioned swimmin' hole, with no worry of pollution.

Lois and I are in a musical, Tulip Time. We've just started, but it's really great. The music is beautiful, and everybody really tries, no fooling around.

One thing about a small town, we're good friends with most of our teachers because they're usually involved in our church or in some activity outside. Miss Flett, our geography teacher, is on the Otago cricket team, and all the teachers coach a sport - one way to know them. My English teacher is a cousin of one of my friends. Almost all the teachers have a child right in the school.

The place is just like the 'good old days" without any of the old inconveniences. They still have steam trains with black smoke pouring from them, 5¢ or 8¢ ice-cream cones (equivalent to our 25-30 cents). Groceries and fish and chips came wrapped in newspapers. Everyone says "hello" on the street or in school. They still do good waltzes, not the droopy kind, but real waltzes as well as modern dances. Religion is much more a part of life. Lois and I are teaching Sunday school.

There is no central heating in the school, and I soon found out why I was shivering and the others weren't. They all wear singlets - undershirts. Ah, much better now.

Our hair isn't allowed to touch our collar in the back when we're in school uniform, so I must wear my hair in scruffy, wee pigtales. We have to wear hats and blazers to and from school no matter what the temperature. The uniforms are comfortable and it's so nice not to worry about what to wear...

We all wish Denise the best of luck with her new home and family, and want her to know that AHS is a bit empty without her.

Retelle Named Professional Ski Teacher

Albert R. Retelle, director of the Methuen Area Ski School, has been granted certification in the Professional Ski Teacher's Association of America upon satisfactory completion of a six day exam for New England candidates held at Loon Mountain, N.H. One hundred and fifty instructors from the New England states were tested on the American System of Ski Teaching including school figures, free skiing technique, and slalom. The coveted white badge was awarded to 70 of the candidates.

Prior to his four years at Methuen, Mr. Retelle directed the ski school at Mt. Pero Ski Camp in Plymouth, N.H. for five years. He lives with his wife and four children, all avid skiers, at 64 Reservation Road.

The week before the exam the Retelles had a ski vacation at Vail, Colo. where Mr. Retelle had the opportunity to attend sessions with the Vail Ski School candidates for Rocky Mountain certification. The skiing in Vail was excellent but with much less snow than on New Hampshire slopes.

The outlook for the profession of college teacher is especially good right now, according to the Department of Labor. With college enrollments increasing from 3.6 million in 1960 to a projected 9 million by 1975, the need for teachers is expected to expand from 200,000 in 1960 to an estimated 450,000 in 1975.

Former Resident In Peace Corps Post

The husband of a former Andover resident has been appointed first assistant to the new Peace Corps director.

William Michael Agar, whose wife is the former Virginia C. Pratt, a Pike school student and Abbot Academy graduate, was chosen as first assistant by Joseph H. Blatchford, Nixon's new choice as director of the Peace Corps.

Blatchford started "Accion en Venezuela" in 1961, and Agar followed him as head of this organization, which encourages and organizes Venezuelans of the Caracas slums into a self-help program. Under Blatchford and Agar, Accion en Venezuela was started on $150,000, raised chiefly in the United States and grew to an organization on a budget of $1,500,000 that came chiefly from local Venezuelan sources.

After three years in Caracas, Agar returned this fall to the United States and the Harvard Business School. He is the son of a retired geology professor who taught at Yale and Columbia and once was head of Freedom House under Wendell Wilkie.

Mrs. Agar is the daughter of Dr. T. Dennie Pratt of New York City and Mrs. Elizabeth K. Pratt, who spent this winter living on Bancroft Road in Andover.

'Y' Fund Drive Dates To Be Determined

Plans for a new Y.M.C.A. family facility to serve Andover and North Andover will be recommended to the board of directors of the United Fund by members of the executive committee at the April meeting of the United Fund.

In response to several inquiries, fund officials said approval for the dates on which a fund raising campaign will be held to make the facility a reality will not be determined until preliminary surveys are completed by a professional fund raising firm as to proper timing for such a drive. Y.M.C.A. officials have several fund raising firms listed as possibilities to conduct the survey.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Scholarship Program Underway

(A TOWNSMAN News Feature)

Sometimes an obstacle, which seems like an unsurmountable roadblock, can be turned into a starting-block instead, a taking-off point for a larger enterprise. But this requires a special sort of vision, far-sightedness instead of near-sightedness. The West Andover Community Association passes this kind of vision test with flying colors.

To get ahead of the story, and jump over the roadblock for a moment, the West Andover Community Association is offering the townspeople of Andover the chance to buy stock certificates, at one dollar per share.

The stock will be offered for a limited time only - probably about six weeks - starting next Thursday.

So what do the stock certificates represent?

Each represents one share in the future, according to the West Andover Community Association's president, Chester Whitney, Jr. Specifically, an investment in Andover High School seniors whose solid achievements have earned them significant educational opportunities in college next year.

Whitney, chairman of the WACA scholarship fund drive, emphasized that there would be absolutely no short-term return to investors, -- no drawings, no prizes, no special winners and losers among those who buy shares in the future.

Every dollar taken in will go straight to High School Principal Philip Wormwood, whose scholarship award committee will award them to deserving college-bound seniors, to help them defray the high cost of higher education.

But where was the roadblock in all this? For several years the WACA has raised money for scholarships through an increasingly successful raffle within its membership and other interested individuals and businesses. $1600 was raised in last year's raffle, and awarded as three $500 scholarships to graduating high school seniors, plus one $100 achievement award at the Voke School. Why not do the same thing this year?

The roadblock was a ruling putting teeth into an old anti-lottery law, making raffles illegal. So, the West Andover Community Association should have concluded, no raffle - no money. No scholarships for seniors. Too bad. Right?

Wrong:

Whitney told the TOWNSMAN that the West Andover group's reasoning went this way:

A minority of young people get into or cause trouble, and get a lot of negative attention from adults. The positive achievements of concerned and responsible young people ought to be getting positive attention and support from adults.

Besides Andover students' academic achievements, and achievements in sports, music and drama, Whitney cited increased interest in politics and government, and student involvement in raising money for American Field Service students, a Peace Corps school in India and the Biafra food drive.

"We should be paying attention and listening," said Whitney. He said his group felt it was not time to give up in the face of the roadblock of the anti-affle ruling, but time for a vote of confidence and increased support.

So the West Andover Community Association is jumping over the roadblock posed by the ruling, and using it as a taking-off point for a town-wide effort.

Since it is illegal to get members and friends to support scholarships through a raffle, with the hope of winning prizes themselves, the Association will give the whole town a chance to support scholarships, with no prizes and all the money going to the scholarships - by buying shares in the future of Andover's young people.

Whitney points out that their future is everybody's future, that buying a "share in the future" is a bargain today, and a good long-term investment.

and economical way.

If the town is to enforce the law with a municipal employee, it will be necessary to build a dog pound and obtain a vehicle for pickup. Under private contract, possibly the law could be enforced at a lesser price. Under consideration should the town undertake enforcement, is using an area near the town's disposal site for impounding canines.

Duncan Cairnie, a patrolman on the police department, who has been dog officer and has filled the position on a part time basis during the past year, has been reappointed to the post by the selectmen, until such time as the permanent dog officer position is filled.
